

LEAVE IT TO BELVOIR

MAKE A DRAMATIC DIFFERENCE BY REMEMBERING BELVOIR IN YOUR WILL

Leaving a gift to Belvoir in your Will is a wonderful way to help to secure the long-term future of our company, so that future generations can experience the magic created through Belvoir Street Theatre.

You can nominate to support the areas of most need, or we would be happy to discuss specific areas you would like your bequest to support. Whatever the size of your gift, a bequest is a meaningful way of sharing your enjoyment of Belvoir today with the audiences and artists of tomorrow.

The following information has been prepared to enable you to distribute your assets as you wish. Please find specific wording on page 2 of this document.

HOW TO MAKE A BEQUEST TO COMPANY B LTD (BELVOIR)

We recommend that you seek professional advice from your solicitor or financial adviser in arranging a bequest to us but we can provide you with starting guidance and are happy to discuss in confidence your intention.

There are several ways you can make a bequest to Company B Ltd:

- Give an asset or a specific sum of money to Company B Ltd.
- Make a bequest to Company B Ltd to take effect after the death of your spouse, indicating portion would then revert to Company B Ltd
- Leave a percentage of your estate to Company B Ltd
- Leave a particular item or items such as shares, paintings, property, jewellery or other items of value to Company B Ltd
- Take out a life insurance policy with Company B Ltd nominated as a beneficiary.
- You can specify that the remainder of your estate be given to Company B Ltd after you have made a specific bequest of any sort. You may specify that if any named beneficiary is unable to accept your bequest, an alternative it should be given to Company B Ltd.
- If you have an asset such as a house, a parcel of land or a paid up life insurance policy which you will not need in the future, you can donate it as a tax deductible gift now. This may relieve you of any capital gains tax that might be due upon sale.
